

The mission of The Gabriella Foundation is to transform the lives of underserved youth in Los Angeles through high-quality dance instruction. The Gabriella Foundation's Everybody Dance! Daytime Program provides comprehensive, standards-based dance education that improves students' physical fitness, strengthens creative expression, and can include classroom theme integration. We tailor our program to fit the needs of each school we work with.

The Everybody Dance! Daytime Program provides:

- One-hour classes of high quality dance education
- Teaching Artists who are professional dancers or retired professional dancers
- Teaching Artists who have undergone a background check through the DOJ with up-to-date TB tests and who receive monthly professional development
- Substitute Teaching Artists if and when needed
- Make-up classes for any classes cancelled due to a Teaching Artist emergency
- End-of-semester open houses or dance performances for each class
- Collaboration with other school activities and/or programs
- Dance education that connects with academic themes, pending teacher input
- Instruction that is accessible to multiple learning styles
- A participation grade for each student, upon school's request
- Flexibility with regards to school site schedules
- MOU outlining our partnership and invoicing structure

What our school partners provide:

- A certified teacher in the dance classroom at all times
- An administrative point person for regular communication with the Daytime Program Manager
- A clean, consistent dance space for each class
- A reliable sound system (one can be provided by Everybody Dance! if discussed in advance)
- A whiteboard or chalkboard (one can be provided by Everybody Dance! if discussed in advance)
- A secure location to keep sound system and whiteboard/chalkboard, if necessary
- Maximum of 30 students per dance class
- Office or administrative support for students with extreme behavioral issues
- Quarterly or annual payment for services
- An administrative point person to support a culminating dance performance

What some of our school partners have said about the Daytime Everybody Dance! program:

"Excellent program and presentations."

"My third graders always looked forward to our dance special."

"It was very impressive to watch each of the grade levels perform. All of the performances were great and well-organized."

"I wish I could have dance twice a week!"
