Saturday March 26, 2022 • 6:00 pm • SoFi Stadium

Join us for an evening at SoFi Stadium celebrating the everybody dance la! community.

EVERYBODY DANCE LA! (EDLA!) TRANSFORMS LIVES AND COMMUNITIES THROUGH THE POWER OF DANCE.

EDLA! was founded in the year 2000, by Liza Bercovici in memory of her 13-year-old daughter, Gabriella, who loved to dance. Today, EDLA! serves over 4,900 youth grades K-12, at 35 in-school and afterschool locations.

Through the hard work and commitment of our 40+ Teaching Artists, our youth kept dancing, with virtual classes during the pandemic. As of July 2021, EDLA! is back to in-person programming and our youth are ready to show off their accomplishments!

It's time to celebrate and we invite you to join us! On Saturday, March 26th, 6pm, Everybody Dance LA! will hold The Celebration at Sofi Stadium to honor the youth, teaching artists, staff, and supporters who have carried us through the pandemic and lifted our hearts with their kindness and commitment.

We invite you to join us for this important event. Together, we can ensure arts education is accessible to every child in Los Angeles.

See you there!

Nike

Nike believes in the power of sport to break barriers and build community to change the game for all. That commitment lives here in Los Angeles, where they are proud to support EDLA! as we continue the legacy of introducing dance to youth across the region. The talented and passionate staff at EDLA! are creating transformative, positive change in LA – providing the space for the next generation of dancers to move, express and see their own potential.

Renae Williams Niles

Renae Williams Niles has been a leading arts advocate for nearly 30 years. During her tenures at The Music Center, USC Kaufman School of Dance, and now the LA Philharmonic, she has supported Everybody Dance LA! and its partnerships with Youth Orchestra LA and LA Dance Project. Her work is based on her passionate belief that every child in LA deserves exposure to and education in the arts. EDLA! is proud to have Renae as our champion.
